

ESAA – CHANNEL ISLANDS ROLL OF HONOUR

Before the formation of the Channel Islands Schools' Athletics Association, athletes from the Channel Islands competed as part of the Hampshire team.

The first time a Channel Islands team appeared in the ESAA Championships was in 1957. A. Wadham was the team's top finisher at these championships with 4th place in the Junior Boys 220 yards.

The first ESAA medallist in a Channel Islands team was E. Lewis who won the silver medal in the 1959 Junior Boys long jump.

Lauren Therin was the first Channel Islands athlete to become an ESAA champion when she won the Junior javelin throw title in 1999.
